HIGHLAND SINGLE MALT

Sherry Collection

The Sherry Collection exhibits the unique influence imparted by different types of Sherry casks on the Tomatin spirit in an exceptional showcase. This collection consists of three different expressions finished in Manzanilla, Palo Cortado and Pedro Ximénez Sherry butts, each one selected to highlight the exceptional flavours these casks bring to our treasured Single Malt.

The Manzanilla Edition

1 of 3

With aromas of sourdough bread and salted popcorn, flavours of dried fruits, chamomile tea, grapefruit, maple syrup and salted walnut balance perfectly on the palate. The finish is slightly salty, typical of a Manzanilla sherry, with warming brown butter.

Vintage ~ 2014

Aged 10 Years

Strength ~ 46% alc./vol.

Non-chill filtered & natural colour

Matured in Manzanilla Butts

The Palo Cortado Edition

2 of 3

Aromas of cinder toffee and dried orange develop into notes of milk chocolate with Brazil nuts and toasted fruit loaf on the palate. The finish is complex and tangy with black tea and root ginger.

Vintage ~ 2008

Aged 15 Years

Strength ~ 46% alc./vol.

Non-chill filtered & natural colour

Matured in Palo Cortado Butts

The Pedro Ximénez Edition

3 of 3

Aromas of sticky toffee pudding and espresso lead, while on the palate there are notes of lemon curd with golden syrup and underlying flavours of dates, dried fig and muscovado sugar. The finish is long and warm with notes of rum and raisin and dark chocolate.

Vintage ~ 2006

Aged 17 Years

Strength ~ 46% alc./vol.
